PRESS RELEASE

COSYFOP Meets with Director of ILO Office in Algiers to Review Recommendations of ILO Supervisory Bodies

On Sunday, 8 November 2026, the Confederation of Productive Forces Trade Unions (COSYFOP) held a working meeting with Mr Halim Hamzaoui, Director of the International Labour Organization (ILO) Office in Algiers. The meeting focused on the follow-up to the observations and recommendations of the ILO Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (CEACR), as well as the decisions and recommendations of the ILO Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA).

The meeting was part of COSYFOP's ongoing efforts to promote the implementation of recommendations issued by the ILO's supervisory bodies and strengthen respect for fundamental trade union rights and freedoms in Algeria.

COSYFOP reiterates that respect for freedom of association is an obligation under the international conventions ratified by Algeria and calls for full implementation of the recommendations issued by the ILO's supervisory bodies. The Confederation reaffirms its commitment to pursuing its efforts with the ILO and its relevant bodies to ensure that these recommendations lead to concrete measures that uphold freedom of association, protect the rights of workers and their representatives, and enable independent trade unions to operate freely, without interference, restrictions or intimidation.

Freedom of association is a right. Upholding it is an obligation.
