Algiers, 21 November 2026

STATEMENT

SNAPAP announces that the ILO has officially registered its complaint against the Algerian government

The National Autonomous Union of Public Administration Personnel (SNAPAP) announces that its complaint against the Algerian government, filed on 10 June 2026 with the Committee on Freedom of Association of the International Labour Organization (ILO), has been officially registered as Case No. 3545.

In a letter dated 11 November 2026 to SNAPAP General Secretary Nassira Ghozlane, the International Labour Office confirmed that it had forwarded the complaint to the Algerian government for its observations, with a view to the examination of the case on its merits.

SNAPAP renews its call on the Ministry of Labour to allow the union to hold its inclusive national congress and to stop supporting Belkacem Felfoul and entrenching his illegitimate leadership, even though he has exceeded the two-term limit on trade union office set by Article 56 of Law No. 23-02 on the exercise of trade union rights.

The union also urges the Ministry of Labour to end the selective application of the law, to refrain from any interference in the internal affairs of trade union organizations and to honour Algeria's international commitments, in particular those arising from ILO Convention No. 87 on Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise.

SNAPAP reaffirms that trade union legitimacy stems from the free will of the membership, not from recognition or support by the authorities.

SNAPAP will pursue its struggle while training a new generation of young trade unionists capable of taking up the torch and carrying on the fight for a democratic trade union organization that is independent of the authorities and fully devoted to defending workers' rights and interests.
